

Scottish Formats Resource

Directory of Accessible Information Providers

3rd Edition – 2009 / 2010

Are you aware of the importance of providing your information in alternative formats or languages?

Not sure where to start?

The Scottish Formats Resource has now been fully updated and is an essential source containing details of transcription, translation and interpreting services available to Scotland.

This updated version has over 100 service providers, providing information in formats such as braille, audio, large print and easy read.

The directory also holds details of note takers, lip speakers, BSL/English interpreters, as well as organisations providing translation and interpretation in a wide range of languages.
